

Church Family Newsletter 30th October 2020

Dear Church Family,

You will be glad to hear we are already thinking how we can do Christmas services this year. Though it will be different, there will be no less celebration and joy! I think our villages and community need something positive this Christmas and we are really praying how we can encourage each other at Christmas.

This Sunday Jeremiah 1:4-19: Self-doubt, God's help

Last week we saw Isaiah, who saw himself as not good enough for God, or good enough for God to use him. He was wrong, as God cleansed him and gave him a purpose.

This week we have Jeremiah who thinks he is not equipped enough for God's plan for him.

I wonder whether you ever think you aren't capable of doing what God wants you to do? Come and be inspired by God calling Jeremiah to be the man he never thought he could be!

Morning services inside: Frant 9:30am, Eridge 11:15am
Afternoon service outside: Festival Church 5:00pm

Festival Church:

It is looking wet (again!) on Sunday, and our marquee needs a little fix from last week's wind, so adults will likely be in the church, so bring a mask.

The children enjoyed a great time round the fire in the dark this week. Cannot wait for a dry one to get outside for our lit-up service for the adults!

Children for Festival Church: book in with Ed: frant youth@gmail.com

(If your Children can't come please let Ed know as we have a waiting list)

Churchyard Clearing 2020

Join us tomorrow at 10:30am for the start of our Frant Churchyard clearing! We will be there each Saturday through November

Eridge – Saturday 21st November 10:00am – join us for our big clear of the year!

Bring some gardening gear, do feel free to bring your own hot drink and snack!

Share for Prayer

Particular prayer today for Roy Dicker who is now very close to going home to heaven. May the certain hope of the resurrection strengthen his faith to the end, and comfort Audrey and his whole family.

Also David Emler who is now home and continues to recover from an operation last week.

If you would like to add someone to our share for prayer, please email the office:

Every blessing,

-Rev Brendan
